The term automatically renews unless either party provides written notice to the other party of termination or cancellation of the Agreement. Notice shall be provided no later than 15 days prior to the expiration of the current term. Written notice will be considered sufficient when received via email at (info@yvedigital.com).

E. Royalties and Accounting.

1. Fee: Client agrees to pay YVE Digital a one-time registration fee of $9.99 US. Additional fees will be charged based upon each release you deliver through YVE Digital, as started on the business website yvedigital.com. Payment must be made at the time of registration and before Content is delivered to YVE Digital. Yve Distribution accepts payment online via Credit Card (Stripe) and PayPal.
2. Royalties: YVE Digital will pay Client 90% royalties received from Client Content distributed through YVE Digital and pay 80% of Youtube revenue to clients in our network.

Client therefore should know partners (i.e. iTunes, Spotify, Deezer, 7Digital, etc.) take cuts of the revenue made, (i.e. If you are selling an album on iTunes for $99.99, iTunes only gives you 80-85% of the said amount) Royalties are initially calculated by the specific Partner site upon which the Client Content appears and may vary based on type of Content, country or territory. In most instances, royalties accumulate both from content downloads and streaming. If a Partner does not appear on your quarterly statement, that means that your Content did not generate any revenues from that Partner during that time period. Royalties are paid to Client once Client accrues a payable balance of $50.00USD or greater. Our royalty portal is available for Client to login and view your daily and weekly estimates and quarterly report. If Client does not make the revenue threshold, the previous quarter's revenue will appear on your current quarter statement until you do receive payment. Any balance due under $50.00NET (aggregated for all Content) shall be rolled into the following month and paid only when the balance exceeds $50.00USD.

3.Accounting: YVE Digital pays royalties to Client in one lump sum payable quarterly. Reports are available approximately 30-45 days after quarter end. For countries and/or individuals not accepting Pay Pal or USA checks, we do have the ability to send payments via Xoom, MoneyGram and/or Wire Transfers. Xoom fees differ by territory and are to be deducted from your royalties. Bank transfer fees are subject to a $45.00 Wire Fee to be subtracted from your payment. MoneyGram fees are deducted from your next quarterly payment. The dates listed below are estimated dates when payment will be available for invoicing. Statements are Posted:

Q1: May 10-15/ Q2: August 10-15/ Q3: November 10-15/ Q4: February 10-15
Quarter Schedule: Q1-Jan-Mar / Q2-Apr-Jun / Q3-Jul-Sept / Q4-Oct-Dec

In order to receive payment, Client must issue an invoice and/or payment request via the Yve Distribution management system when reports are available. Failure to submit a payment request prevents Yve Distribution from paying out any royalty. If you do not receive an automated email with your username and password, please contact Yve Distribution at info@yvedigital.com.

4.Third Party Obligations: Client shall be solely responsible for payment to its affiliated artists, licensees, producers and other persons responsible for any recordings distributed under this Agreement. Client shall also be responsible for payments required by Client to collective bargaining agreements, third-party licenses and music publishing licenses and royalties pertaining to Client Content.

Music Publishing: YVE Digital requires Clients to obtain and pay music-publishing licenses directly to Performing Rights Organizations (i.e. BMI, ASCAP). In some instances, YVE Digital may agree to assume the responsibility for these licenses and deduct any associated fees and costs from the Client Royalties. In the event Client and YVE Digital agree upon specific terms or partnership surrounding these licenses, it will be memorialized in a separate agreement with YVE Digital Publishing department.

and/or owned by the Client, YVE Digital is exempt from all legal issues and/or wrongdoing and Client agrees to indemnify YVE Digital pursuant to the terms in Section J, below. However, Client acknowledges that licenses YVE Digital may have granted to Partners may remain in force for a time period after the expiration of this Agreement. In that event, YVE Digital is absolved from any liability for content that remains with Partners, licensees and others who have received the Client Content from YVE Digital prior to Termination.

2.Opportunity to Cure: Either party shall have the right to terminate this Agreement upon written notice to the other party. Neither party shall be deemed in breach of this agreement unless the other party has given the breaching party notice, and the breaching party has failed to cure such breach within thirty(30) days after receipt of such notice.3.Payments:

After termination, YVE Digital will make a final payment to Client with all royalties earned/accumulated. The final payment is made during the next regularly scheduled quarterly payment. Payments are not expedited following termination or cancellation. In the event of any dispute surrounding the distribution of Client Content under this Agreement, YVE Digital will freeze any royalty payments pertaining to Client until the matter is resolved. Royalties may continue to accumulate in client's account due to Client Content remaining on Partners' websites, but any payments will be held until final resolution.

The indemnified party shall give the indemnifying party prompt notice of any claim and, if the indemnified party so requests, the indemnifying party shall defend the indemnified party at the indemnifying party's expense. Any settlement shall be subject to the indemnified party's prior written approval. This obligation shall survive the termination of this Agreement for any reason.
